Dedication

MR. SOUHRADA
JANUARY 2, 1973

"Death is never easy,
it is always a shock
and is always hard to face.
But it is especially hard to accept in a young person.

For death forces us to examine ourselves--
to do some soul-searching and thinking
about what we're here for,
what is life for.
What does it mean?"

So began the memorial services for
Mr. Souhrada.
Little more need be said as to how deeply it affected us all--
especially the High School.

Mr. Souhrada made three challenges to us--

"to work for eternal
peace"--

"to take care of one another"--

and "to love life."

We might also heed
another's advice--

"All I can do for my friend
is be his friend,"

Henry Thoreau.

Sounds of School Life.

I ain't sure, Bear.

Let's be quiet, people.

Get to your classes!

Shut up!

Not in the Halls, Bill!

Did you hear about the traveling salesman?!! NO WAY!!!

Don't talk without permission!
Sure could use a weed!

Wait, I got to hit the can!

Wait, for dinner?
Pork again?!!!!

The diagram illustrates a two-stage sampling process. It starts with a large circle labeled 'N', representing the entire population. Inside this circle is a smaller circle labeled 'n', representing a sample selected from the population. Inside the 'n' circle is a third, even smaller circle labeled 'm', representing a subsample selected from the sample. Arrows indicate the flow from the population to the sample, and then from the sample to the subsample.
